

Logging into Blackboard - You'll need your Banner ID (@##### twice). Do change your password.

The screenshot shows the Blackboard Learn interface for Wharton County Junior College. The browser address bar displays <https://wcjc.blackboard.com/>. A red arrow points to the address bar with a callout box that says "Save this URL." Another red arrow points to the "Login Help" link with a callout box that says "Read this." A third red arrow points to the "Request for IT Support Form" link with a callout box that says "If you want to use your computer from home, use these." A fourth red arrow points to the top right of the page with a callout box that says "Logout when you are done. Blackboard stays open." The page features a "Blackboard Login" section with fields for Username and Password, a "Student Help Desk" section with contact information and resources, and an "Additional Information" section with links for faculty and downloadable resources. An "Announcements" banner at the bottom states "14 Week Fall Courses Begin Monday September 8th." and "(Thursday, September 4, 2014)".
