

Your Name _____ Write the letter of the correct answer on the blank line.

| | | |
|---|---|--|
| 1 | — | Servitude is some version of serfdom (bound to a piece of land owned by the master) or slavery (a worker who could be sold anywhere). They worked to live another day and, if they did not work obediently, they could be forced to work. About the end of the 1700s, the proportion of people in servitude in the world was: a. 10% b. 25% c. 50% d. 75% e. 90% |
| 2 | — | About 1492, the dominant religion in Western Europe was: a. Eastern Orthodox b. Islam c. Protestant d. Roman Catholicism |
| 3 | — | About 1700, the dominant religion in the English colonies was: a. Eastern Orthodox b. Islam c. Protestant d. Roman Catholicism In under 10 words, what does a Protestant believe? |
| 4 | — | From the time of the Roman Empire (ending in about 500 AD) and beyond the 1600s, people in Western Europe who did not follow the religion that their king followed could be persecuted or even killed. Through about 1650, kings of one faith also went to war to force other nations to follow their religion. a. True b. False In under 10 words, what does the word empire mean? |
| 5 | — | It was common sense to most people and governments before about 1800 that slavery was right—or at least legal and to be enforced by government. a. True b. False In under 10 words, what does the word government mean? |
| 6 | — | Western European countries from the 1400s on collected knowledge about navigation, explored, traded with, and—where they could—conquered native peoples. The first nation-state (notice the word) to do this was: a. England b. France c. Portugal d. Spain In under 10 words, what does the word state mean? |
| 7 | — | Western European countries from the 1400s on collected knowledge about navigation, explored, traded with, and—where they could—conquered the native peoples and made them: a. Colonies b. Mandates c. Protectorates |
| 8 | — | Western European countries from the Middle Ages through the 1800s (and beyond in some places and ways) considered it correct that a person had the status and rights of his father. The nobility had land and rights gained over the years; merchants and owners of property had rights; landless people did not. a. True b. False |