

Name _____

Date _____

1. In the primary source for Chapter 1, to be "free of servitude" means Native Americans will not be slaves if they become the king's "subjects and vassals."
*a. True
b. False
2. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish read to Native Americans a requirement that the Native Americans accept the Spanish "kings and lords." If they did, then the Native Americans would "be treated as their subjects and vassals" and have the protection of the king.
*a. True
b. False
3. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish read to Native Americans a requirement that the Native Americans accept the Spanish "kings and lords." If they do, then the Native Americans will be made "slaves."
a. True
*b. False
4. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish say that if the Native Americans do not accept the requirements in the Requerimiento, they will go to war with the Native Americans and will "make slaves of them" and "sell and dispose of them" as they wish.
*a. True
b. False
5. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish refer to these people as "subjects" of the king:
a. The Native Americans who want to avoid being enslaved
b. The Spanish who read the Requerimiento to the Native Americans
*c. All of the listed items

Name _____

Date _____

1. In the primary source for Chapter 1, to be "free of servitude" means Native Americans will not be slaves if they become the king's "subjects and vassals."
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish read to Native Americans a requirement that the Native Americans accept the Spanish "kings and lords." If they did, then the Native Americans would "be treated as their subjects and vassals" and have the protection of the king.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish read to Native Americans a requirement that the Native Americans accept the Spanish "kings and lords." If they do, then the Native Americans will be made "slaves."
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish say that if the Native Americans do not accept the requirements in the Requerimiento, they will go to war with the Native Americans and will "make slaves of them" and "sell and dispose of them" as they wish.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish refer to these people as "subjects" of the king:
 - a. The Native Americans who want to avoid being enslaved
 - b. The Spanish who read the Requerimiento to the Native Americans
 - c. All of the listed items

Name _____

Date _____

1. In the primary source for Chapter 1, to be "free of servitude" means Native Americans will not be slaves if they become the king's "subjects and vassals."
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish read to Native Americans a requirement that the Native Americans accept the Spanish "kings and lords." If they did, then the Native Americans would "be treated as their subjects and vassals" and have the protection of the king.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish read to Native Americans a requirement that the Native Americans accept the Spanish "kings and lords." If they do, then the Native Americans will be made "slaves."
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish say that if the Native Americans do not accept the requirements in the Requerimiento, they will go to war with the Native Americans and will "make slaves of them" and "sell and dispose of them" as they wish.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. In the primary source for Chapter 1, the Spanish refer to these people as "subjects" of the king:
 - a. The Native Americans who want to avoid being enslaved
 - b. The Spanish who read the Requerimiento to the Native Americans
 - c. All of the listed items