

Links from Your Instructor for Part I

Reminder: You will have an easier time with links if you open them in a New Window. If this does not open automatically in a new window and if you do not know how to do this, click here for tips. (This includes how to save these files from the Internet.) If you need help, just ask.

What is self-testing and how can it help you?

Seeing How History Changes

Most links place historical facts in a table so you can easily compare them. You are not memorizing all of the facts placed in these tables. Instead, you are using those facts to notice changes and patterns. To help you, most links provide tips on what to notice.

- Snapshot from 1980s to about 2008 – blank - Click here for completed Snapshots for 1950s to 1970s and 1970s to 2000+ that you can view online or you can print.

Reference– With all of these, notice a) changes in foreign policy and b) new institutions
