

Rubric for Fact-Checking – You are not dealing with the greyed out area of the rubric, but all the others.

- You check the top 2 rows of the 2 columns on the left by the 5 Good Habits for Evidence resources in this folder
- You check for the Requirements using the Fact-Checking “checklist” below or by using the Requirements link.

“Checklist” for All Requirements listed in the Requirements for Part 1: Evidence Paper

FYI: This saves me time when I grade papers so I do not have to keep flipping through the Requirements. If does not help you, then use the complete link immediately below this. This is the same order and # & letter as the Requirements link.

1	Is the Subject the same as the instructions? Tip: what you write should be about the Subject asked .
3a	Simple font and width like the sample post in the discussion What does the paper look like? Paragraphs either indented like the sample post or with a blank between paragraphs. No footnotes. Tip: This is the one that you can copy to make your paper! The 4-paragraph fill-in-the-blank sample will help you understand the content that you are trying to figure out for your paper.
3b	Maximum 400 words
3c	Opening and closing “” - Be sure you use both “ “ accurately. This is also a readability issue online.
3d	Opening and closing () - Be sure you use both () accurately. This is also a readability issue online.
4	Use the words foreign policy, corollary, global, neighbor, protectorate, and quasi correctly .
