- To receive the points written on this sheet, you must:
  - Reply to this Blackboard email message with this attachment of this feedback form and your paper with handwritten comments.
(FYI: All emails are sent in Blackboard Messages—the official record for the course.)
  - Do so within one week of the day it was provided to your class
(FYI: You can tell that feedback is available because—when I email this feedback form in Blackboard Messages—I also make an Announcement that automatically sends you an email through WCJC email. Do not reply to that WCJC email.)
- To understand the marks in the rubric and in the left column on your Comparison, you must do what I did when I graded. You must compare side by side your words with the textbook pages you cited or should have cited.
- Notice the brief words in the left margin next to lines in your paper. These brief words refer to the statements in the rubric:
  - "F" column: assumed (reading/writing), unreliable, incorrect, incomplete, "" -meaning, not ?, not endnotes, not cite
  - "D" column: read-passive, cherry-pick, embellish, write-passive, "half-copy," "" -incorrect, "" -author
  - Both "F" and "D" columns: directions, mechanics
 (FYI: The statements in the rubric are covered in detail in the 5 Good Habits for Evidence link. If you need, just ask.)
- If you had marks in the "D" and "F" columns and if you do not change your habits for working with evidence for future Comparisons, then your grade will decline because the value for these writing assignments increase
- If you do not understand the feedback or want help in developing different habits, I will be glad to help you.
