Based on the marks in the 2 columns above, the grade for the Analysis is either "D" or "F" as marked.

Its Good Habits for Evidence grade:

- * 0=If any marks in "D" or "F" columns[@]
- * 20=If no marks in "D" or "F" columns

Based on the marks in the 3 columns above, the grade for the Analysis is either "C" or "B" or "A" as marked.

If you made a "C" or "B" or "A," then you also had no marks in the "D" or "F" columns so you get the full 10 points for its Good Habits for Evidence grade and you keep your 30 extra credit points from Getting Started.

1. To receive the points written on this sheet, you must:
 - Reply to this Blackboard email message with this attachment of this form and your paper with handwritten words in the left margin.
(FYI: All emails are sent in Blackboard Messages—the official record for the course.)
 - Do so within one week of the day it was provided to your class
(FYI: You can tell that feedback is available because—when I email this in Blackboard Messages—I also make an Announcement that automatically sends you an email through WCJC email. Do not reply to that WCJC email.)
2. To understand the marks in the rubric and handwritten words in the left margin of your paper, you must do what I did when I graded. You must compare side by side your words with the textbook pages you cited or should have cited.
3. Notice the handwritten words in the left margin next to lines in your paper. These handwritten words refer to underlined statements in the rubric that explain what is incorrect in that line of your paper:
 - From the "F" column: assumed (reading/writing), unreliable, incorrect, incomplete, ""-meaning, not ?, not endnotes, not cite
 - From the "D" column: read-passive, cherry-pick, embellish, write-passive, "half-copy," ""-incorrect, ""-author
(FYI: Statements in the rubric are covered in detail in the 5 Good Habits for Evidence link. If you need help, just ask.)
4. If you had marks in the "D" and "F" columns and if you do not change your habits for working with evidence for future Analyses, then your grade will decline because the value for these Turnitin writing assignments increase.
5. If you do not understand the feedback or want help in developing different habits, I will be glad to help you.
[@] Also causes a 1.11 for the 30 points extra credit for the Good Habits for Evidence. You must respond to the feedback to see the next written assignment.
