

Decent!

Name _____ 8AM 10:50AM 11AM 12PM

In the D and F Columns, the rubric tells you habits that you can develop so you prevent

Criteria	Criteria for A Paper (Points: 89.5 to 100)	Criteria for B Paper (Points: 79.5 to 89.4)	Criteria for C Paper (Points: 69.5 to 79.4)
Reading FOR Evidence (Weight 40%)	Accurately read the parts. Analyzed each part. Evaluated possible changes.	Accurately read the parts. Analyzed each part. Tried to evaluate possible changes.	Accurately read the parts. Summarized only . Did not analyze. Did not try to evaluate possible changes.
Writing WITH Evidence (Weight 30%)	Clearly revealed each part of the question and possible changes. Used representative examples.	Revealed each part of the question and some possible changes. Used a few examples. Not consistent	Only summarized separately each part of the question. Did not cover possible changes.
Requirements FOR Evidence (Weight 25%)	Did exactly all Common and Specific Requirements.	Did most Common and Specific Requirements.	Did some Common and Specific Requirements.
Mechanics (Weight 5%)	No more than one minor error.	One or more mechanical errors.	Two or more mechanical errors.

Yes	Partly	No	Common Requirements (See the webpage for details.)
✓			1. Required Top Line for Your Writing
	✓		2. Required "coherent series of statements leading from a premise to a conclusion."
	✓		3. Required Citation Using Footnotes
		✓	4. Required 5 Good Habits for Evidence
✓			5. Required Good Habits of Working
		✓	a. Microsoft Word automatically footnotes with correct number and correct location at the bottom of the page.
		✓	b. Print the paper. Proof it. To proof = to compare side by side paper and source.
—	—	✓	c. Also proof the appearance of words (fonts/spacing)
		—	d. Be brief and keep any quotation very brief.
✓			6. a. Font - 11 point Calibri font
✓			b. Length - Never more than 1 page, including footnotes.
✓			c. Margin - 1" on the left and .5" on the right
✓			d. Spacing – double spaced

Yes
✓
✓
✓
✓
—
—