

Reminder: Questions about the Introductory Comparison?

This world is different and results in major changes after 1900.

1. Noticing the transition from before 1877 to after
  - People
    - Native Americans
    - Middle class, especially middle class women
    - African Americans in the South
  - General conditions
    - Railroads
    - The frontier
2. What is not there that you may think is there?
3. Types of farmers and laborers and their new world after 1877
4. Pattern of labor events, including the response -- Pinkertons (private police/militia), state militia, federal troops
5. What is different from before the Civil War? – the immigrants, business (the law and the technology and their strategies), the new view of humanness
6. How does the imbalance become visible?
7. Why is government so corrupt and passive?
8. Who tries to re-balance America? – middle class women, experts, some religions (Social Gospel), the farmers